SONOMA'S COLLISION.

nere, while going at a speed of fifteen Bundy and wife, Miss Rosenberg, Miss knots an hour, collided with the steam schooner Advent off Mendocino City, July 6, at 2 o'clock in the morning. The Sonoma was little damaged. The bow and jib of the Advent were cut clear off and she soon filled with water, but was kept affoat by her cargo of lumber. The Sonoma took her in tow until the steam schooner Gualal was sighted, when the tow was turned over to er. The Gualal towed the Advent safely into San Francisco bay. It will take about $15,000 to repair the Advent. The Sonoma was in command of Captain Cousins.

> Yeoman Thomas Dunn of the Naval Station is not the Thomas Dunn for whom anxious relatives are inquiring. There has been some member of the Yeoman Dunn family in the navy for the last fifty years, so that the family would know that the naval register, corrected every three months, would show the whereabouts of every man in the United States Navy, and would look there before making any wild inquiries at long range for members of the family supposed to be in the navy.
